

Broadway-style musical presented by students at this school's Founder's Day

The students of this school presented The Lion King, a musical which was appreciated by everyone

With stunning visual artistry, unforgettable music and the choreography of the Musical Theatre Phenomenon, The Lion King: A Broadway Musical was brought to life on the stage by the students of Class VI to XI of GD Goenka Public School, Vasant Vihar. The school celebrated its 22nd Founder's Day at the Siri Fort Auditorium.

SBK Singh, IPS, Special Commissioner of Police - Law and Order (north), from Delhi Police, was the chief guest at the event. The GD Goenka Group's chairman, Anjani Kumar Goenka along with the vice chairperson Henu Goenka and the managing director Nipan Goenka, were also present at the occasion.

It was a pulsating spectacle, which was driven by primal African rhythms, and some unforgettable tunes that were sung live by the main cast and the choir of over hundred students. Hakuna Matata · The Circle of Life, The Morning Report, and Elton John's Oscar-winning song Can You Feel The Love Tonight were some of the songs that were rendered by the students and commended by everyone.

The special effects, which were created by the LED screens, gigantic 3-D props and backdrops, along with the elaborate costumes and makeup, lent a realistic and authentic touch to the landscapes of the Savanna Grasslands.

The main cast comprising Mufasa, Scar, Simba, Rafiki, Nala and Zazu engrossed themselves completely in their

Their roles were enhanced by elaborate costumes and makeup roles and belted out a powerful display of histrionics coupled with great vocals, enhanced by their elaborate costumes and headgear.

A parent, overwhelmed by the performance, said, "Sincerest compliments to the entire group of participants, teachers, management and choreographers in making the show the success that it turned out to be."