

Job Description: PGT – Political Science cum Legal Studies

Essential Qualifications:

- Postgraduate degree in Political Science, Public Administration, or Law
- B.Ed. – Mandatory
- Minimum 5 years of teaching experience at the senior secondary level (Classes 11–12)
- Familiarity with the CBSE curriculum for both Political Science and Legal Studies
- Strong subject command and ability to link theoretical content with current socio-political developments

Desirable Attributes:

- Exposure to interdisciplinary teaching and real-world application of political/legal frameworks
- Excellent classroom management and communication skills
- Capable of using digital tools and smart classroom techniques
- Ability to mentor students for debates, MUNs, legal literacy camps, and board exam preparation

Key Responsibilities:

- Deliver curriculum-based instruction in Political Science and Legal Studies to senior school students
- Prepare engaging lesson plans and learning resources, ensuring conceptual clarity
- Guide students through critical thinking, constitutional literacy, and contemporary political issues
- Assess student performance through tests, projects, and presentations
- Maintain student records, share feedback, and ensure academic excellence
- Participate in curriculum planning, school events, and inter-school competitions
- Engage with parents, department heads, and school leadership for holistic student development